

The 2nd Conference on Women and the Civil War

Recognizing Women's Efforts, 1861-1865

Hood College, Frederick, MD

June 26-28, 1998

Friday, June 26

Welcome Reception

Saturday, June 27

"My Dear Bishop:" Letters from a Catholic Sister Nurse in a Virginia Confederate Hospital to Charleston, SC Bishop Patrick Lynch. Sister Mary Denis Maher, author.

"Remember the Ladies:" Women's War Efforts in the Pennsylvania Coal Region. Danielle Richards, Penn State.

A Hand to Work and a Heart to Feel: The Albany Army Relief Association and War Relief in Albany, NY During the Civil War. Christine Heidorf, Historic Cherry Hill, Albany.

Women of the Twin Rivers. Deborah Austin and Susan Hawkins, Fort Donelson National Battlefield.

Banners, Flags, and Colors. Juanita Leisch, author, and Rebecca Rose, Museum of the Confederacy.

My Old Kentucky Home – at War. Susan Lyons Hughes, Shaker Village of Pleasant Valley, Kentucky

The Camp Laundress. Leni Sorenson, College of William and Mary.

“In a Moment of Girlish Caprice She Signed Her Name ‘Howard Glyndon:” The Remarkable Journalism Career of Laura Catherine Reddon. Judy Yaeger Jones, Minnesota Women’s History Project.

Book signings

Banquet

Exhibits

Sunday, June 28

Women Lighthouse Keepers, 1861-1865. Sandra Clunies, CGRS.

“Decency Compels Me to Employ My Fingers:” The Housekeeping Warfare of Mary Greenhow Lee. Sheila Phipps, College of William and Mary.

Before the Court: Women in the Union Courts-Martial. Thomas Lowry, MD, author.