

The 8th Conference on Women and the Civil War

Did You Ever Wonder What Women Did During the Civil War?

Hood College, Frederick, MD

July 21-23, 2006

---

Friday, July 21

Workshop A: Research Techniques: Primary Source Deadends – How to Keep Going When You’ve Run Out of Ideas. Meg Galante-DeAngelis, Virginia Mescher, and Susan Youhn.

Workshop B: Collections Techniques: Disaster Preparedness and Disaster Recovery. Rebecca Rose.

Workshop C: Research Techniques: Biographical Research Q&A. Karen Mehaffey and Sara Bartlett.

Workshop D: Collections Techniques: Caring for Your Collection on a Shoestring Budget. Juanita Leisch Jensen.

Welcome Reception

Annual Meeting of the Society for Women and the Civil War

Women at Antietam. Betsy Estilow.

Midnight Madness. A signature speed-shopping event.

---

Saturday, July 22

Jane Claudia Saunders Johnson and the Struggle to Supply the 1st Maryland Regiment, CSA. Stacy Hampton.

They Married Confederate Officers. Kathy Herran.

The lives of the six daughters of Dr. Robert Hall Morrison.

“Strong Evidence of Your Patriotism:” African American Soldiers’ Aid Societies and the Northern War Effort. Dr. Patricia Richard.

“War? What War?” The Civil War in Women’s Periodicals Versus Personal Writings. Juanita Leisch Jensen.

Bus Tour of Antietam National Battlefield

Banquet at the Boonsboro American Legion Hall

---

Sunday, July 23

Anna Ella Carroll, Political Advisor to President Abraham Lincoln. C. Kay Larson.

“Precariously Balanced Between North and South: Survival in Enemy Territory.” The Civil War Experience of a Virginia Woman Living in New York City – Mary Sullivan (1836-1933). Kathleen Curtis Wilson.

Female Physicians in the Civil War Armies. Robert Slawson, MD.

“Veterans as Much as the Gray, Battle-scarred Old Soldiers:” Independent Memorial Groups, Civil War Memory, and Arkansas Women, 1865-1899. Derek Allen Clements.

Workshop: Research Techniques: Fair Use – Your Use is Almost Never Fair. Susan Anthony.