

JOIN IN THE FUN

MOUNT AN EXHIBIT

Present your own research on women's lives and roles in the Civil War by displaying a tabletop exhibit from 8 am Saturday through 1:45 pm Sunday.

SIGN YOUR BOOKS

Conference attendees are invited to bring and sell and/or sign books they have authored or edited during the Baltimore Fair.

SILENT AUCTION AND FLEA MARKET AT THE BALTIMORE FAIR

Buy, sell and bid at a two-hour Silent Auction and Flea Market event. Donate something for the Silent Auction, donate books or gently used reenacting merchandise for the Flea Market, or rent a table to sell your merchandise.

TALENT SHOW AT THE BALTIMORE FAIR

Show that SWCW members have talent as you compete for your region!

This conference is sponsored by The Society for Women and the Civil War, a member-supported organization dedicated to recognizing the efforts of women, those who lived through or had roles in the American Civil War, and those who today research, reenact or otherwise honor them.

The Society sponsors annual conferences, a quarterly e-journal, a monthly newsletter, a yahoo chat group and a website. See enclosed registration sheet or visit SWCW.ORG for registration options.

ENJOY THE CONFERENCE!

SATURDAY, JULY 30, 2011

7:30am – 8:30am Breakfast buffet for all attendees at the College of Notre Dame.

7:30am – 8:45am Registration table open - Don’t forget to pick up your notebook and drop off your contributions for the Baltimore Fair!

9am – 12noon Buses will pick us up at the college for a custom field trip to Ft. McHenry to visit the location of the incarceration of several women during the Civil War.

12noon Pick up a Box Lunch, relax and eat in the famed Gator Alley!

12:30pm – 1:15pm Registration table open.

1:15pm – 1:30pm SWCW Board - Welcome and Administrative Announcements

1:30pm – 2:30pm “Self Devoted Women of the North: Union Women in Maryland” by Dr. Claudia Floyd. What was it like to be a Union woman in a volatile border state during the Civil War? Using the archives of the Maryland Historical Society, Dr. Floyd will guide us in examining the complicated and challenging lives of Union women in Maryland.

2:30pm – 3:30pm “Southern Relief Societies” by Carol Randell, Lt Col, USAF (Ret). Discussions of Civil War aid societies often extol the immeasurable efforts of the Christian Commission, U. S. Sanitary Commission, and various Northern states aid societies. This begs the question, did not Southern ladies also join together to help provide for the needs of the soldiers? The answer is, of course they did! Come hear Ms. Randell as she shares her research on this fascinating topic.

3:30pm – 4pm Cookie Break

4pm – 5pm “Helen M. Noye – The Young Nurse” by Michael Fitzpatrick. Helen M. Noye spent almost a full year as a volunteer nurse at the Naval School Hospital in Annapolis, MD. As one of the youngest nurses ever to serve during the Civil War. Noye left behind a legacy of letters written to her family in Buffalo describing her feelings while working in the hospital, as well as observations on the other nurses, medical staff and the patients she treated. Using these letters Mr. Fitzpatrick will help us see the art of nursing through 20 year old Helen’s eyes.

6:30pm – 8pm Dinner Banquet. Our Southern Hospitality banquet offers a taste of the Chesapeake.

8pm – 10pm Baltimore Fair: Silent Auction, Flea Market, Exhibits and Talent Show. Support your region (North, South, Trans-Mississippi) and help to raise money for our scholarships and historic preservation!

SUNDAY, JULY 31, 2011

7:30am – 9am Breakfast buffet at the College of Notre Dame.

8:15am – 8:30am SWCW Board - Welcome and Administrative Announcements

8:30am – 9:30am “Harriett Patience Dame – Civil War Nurse” by Kim Schwatka. Ms. Schwatka will focus on the work of Harriett Patience Dame of New Hampshire and her experiences during the war while serving as the matron/nurse for the Second New Hampshire Infantry Regiment, and assisting the New Hampshire Soldier’s Aid Society in its work. After the war, Harriet served as the third president of the Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War.

9:30am – 10:30am “Survivors: African American Women Forge A Community” by Marva Belt. Using slave narratives, community records and artifacts, Ms. Belt will take us into the lives of several African American women living as domestic slaves on a plantation in Northumberland County, VA to visualize their daily chores, family life and their story of survival. These women chose to stay in a Southern state to keep their family together and to forge a community where they could “keep a roof over their heads.”

10:30am – 11am Break – Silent Auction Results and last chance to visit the Baltimore Fair.

11am – 12noon “A Charmed Life: The Exploits of Baltimore’s Belle Hetty Cary” by Georgia Chaney Ladd. Ms. Ladd will introduce one of Maryland’s most famous Civil War inhabitants: Mrs. Hetty Cary. Using the backdrop of nineteenth-century Baltimore culture and society, this presentation will reveal the myths surrounding this famous Marylander such as the arrest of Ms. Cary or the creation of the Confederate flag from her underpinnings!

12noon – 1pm “The Women’s Relief Corps: Beyond the Battlefield” by Cindy Zerkowski. After the Civil War, many of the relief and aid organizations that were established to assist the soldiers in the field vanished. However, the need for financial and medical relief persisted, including those widowed and orphaned continued. Ms. Zerkowski will provide an overview of how the Women’s Relief Corps (W.R.C.) grew out of the need to address these issues and how they served to support Civil War veterans.
